'Let Your Light Shine'

Matthew 5:16

Dear Parents,

Early this week we emailed you a copy of the report from our recent SIAMs inspection.

Our overall grade: Good
The impact of collective worship: Good
The effectiveness of religious education: Good

You'll be pleased to know that the inspector agreed with on-going judgements of the school's strengths and priorities for development which are already part of our school development plan. Next term, we will be working with Reverend Paul to develop a shared definition for spirituality, and we have already started developing our work on courageous advocacy so our children become agents of change, speak out against injustice so we can let our lights shine just like Jesus did.

We will also be using some of the wonderful resources produced by Christian Aid to further develop the children's awareness of climate change, and hopefully inspire them to want to take action and speak out so they start moving beyond making simple suggestions such as raising money to solve complex problems. Rome wasn't built in a day! Empowering our children to become courageous advocates for change will be something we instil in the children as they move through the school, so by the time they leave us they will be passionate about persuading those who have the power to make change do something about it.

"There comes a point where we need to stop just pulling people out of the river. We need to go upstream and find out why they're falling in."

Desmond Tutu

Kind regards,

Kate Appleby

A host of golden daffodils ...

On Tuesday, the children used watercolours to paint a picture of some daffodils. Above are some of their masterpieces from across the school. It's wonderful seeing how their skills develop over the years.

Message from Reverend Paul

One of the great joys of the month of March is that spring is well and truly upon us. As I write this, in February, we are already seeing snowdrops and daffodils emerge. What really brings us hope are the lighter nights and longer days.

By the 8th March it will be 6pm before the sun sets and it will be well into October before that happens again. In March we will start seeing twelve hours of sunlight and it will be towards the end of September that we return to less than twelve hours of sunlight.

The growing hours of light in March can help us to reflect on our lives as we make our way through Lent. In Lent we spend time to stop and think about the areas of our lives that are still battling darkness, those thoughts and actions that we are ashamed of that hurt God and others. Those times when we choose to say or do nothing when we know the good, we should do is staring us in the face. Lent helps us to honestly reflect upon our lives.

As we recognise the shady corners of our actions, we can draw challenge and encouragement from the words of Jesus in John 8

"I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." John 8:12

And in John 12, when Jesus said,

"I have come into the world as a light, so that no one who believes in me should stay in darkness." John 12:46

As we reflect during Lent we journey towards Easter and Jesus death but also knowing that, that isn't the end of the story. That light does defeat darkness, that there is hope in the light of the resurrection. Hope for us.

As St Paul wrote to the Ephesians

"For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light (for the fruit of the light consists in all goodness, righteousness and truth)." Ephesians 5:8-9

As March progresses, as we prepare for Easter, let us use the lighter nights and longer days to help us reflect and draw encouragement. Let us look to the light of the world.
