‘Let Your Light Shine’

Matthew 5:16

Dear Parents,

The children have returned from the Christmas holidays full of enthusiasm for our new study themes. There have been some very strange goings on in school. A bus has magically appeared in Otters, a zoo keeper came to visit Hedgehogs and some rather large footprints were found in Squirrels' classroom. Badgers have been using a range of resources including some historical artefacts to work out what their study theme is.

The children will be bringing home their homework journals today. Inside you will find a copy of their study theme overview, homework matrix and spellings. A copy can also be found on the school's website.

I have added some additional dates to our school calendar which can be found at the end of the newsletter – several sport tournaments and some PTA events including a film night and disco. We are also planning on taking part in the NSPCC Numbers Day on 2nd February. More information about this and the sponsored pancake event will be sent out next week.

I am going to be out of school next Tuesday and Wednesday at a head's conference. Have a wonderful weekend.

Kind regards,

Kate Appleby
Principal of Warmingham CE Primary
Proud member of the Rural Church Schools Academy Trust

Message from Reverend Paul ~ Taking the decorations down.

As we take the Christmas lights down, things can certainly seem bleak and dark. It seems some of the joy and sparkle is missing. The start of the New Year sees us packing down the decorations, cleaning up the mess and putting the boxes back in the loft. As we store everything, it is all too easy to pack Jesus away for another year too. Having spent the previous few weeks thinking about him, we can fall into the trap of putting him out of our thoughts for another year. Perhaps, we might dust him off for a couple of days around Easter, but we have to ask ourselves if we will allow the truth of Jesus' birth to really impact our lives going forward?

The Shepherds are a great example to us of the impact that Jesus' birth can and should make on our lives.

As Luke's Gospel records "The shepherds returned, glorying and praising God for all they had seen and heard" Luke 2:20

Looking into the eyes of Jesus, meeting their saviour changed the lives of the Shepherds. They returned praising God. Their lives were changed forever by Christmas. All they had seen and heard meant they would never be the same. They would live each day with Jesus in their hearts and lives.

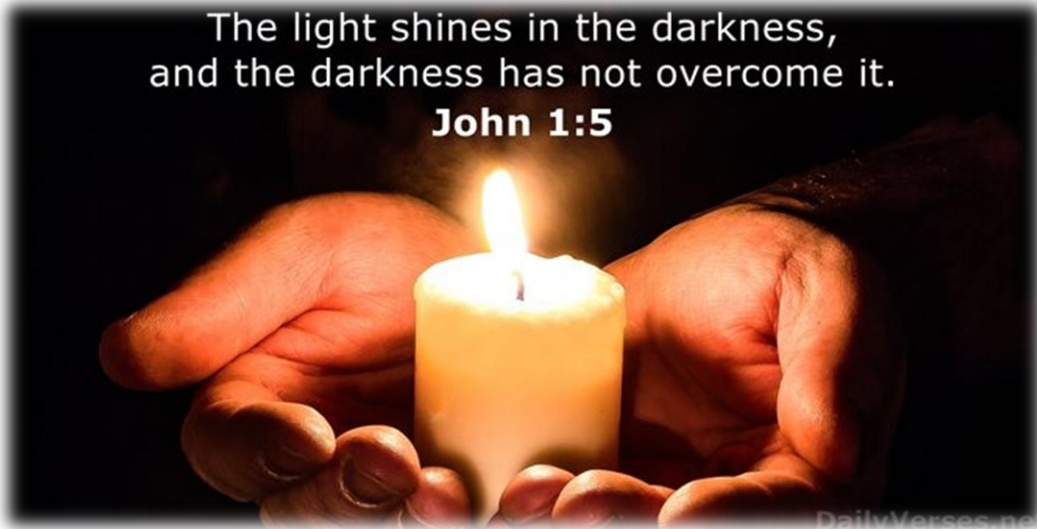

What impact has Christmas had on you? After all the festivities are you ready to pack Jesus away with the rest of Christmas; happy to return to your day to day lives?

John reminds us that Jesus is, "The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it" John 1:5

As the decorations are removed, as some of the glamour is boxed away, and as the lights come down, let us remember that Jesus is the light that shines in darkness, and he wants to live alongside us. Let us be reminded we can, like the shepherds, take the joy of Christmas into each day.

The light shines in the darkness,
and the darkness has not overcome it.
John 1:5
