| 26 th October  | Farming groups have written to the government Department for Environment, Food and Rural affairs (Defra) outlining how a rule change would allow farmers to temporarily stop public rights of way where animals are present.                               | What do you like to see when you go for a walk?  |    | Rule of Law - Rules and laws are there to keep us all safe. Sometimes people ask for rules to be changed. Farmers are hoping that by stopping people walking on their land, when there are animals there, they can help to stop anyone getting hurt.  |
| 2 nd November  | England footballer, Marcus Rashford has said "I could not be more proud to call myself British" after many authorities went against the Government's refusal to fund meals over the recent half-term break for many children.                              | Who is your favourite famous person?             |    | Mutual Respect and Tolerance - We all have different families and some need more help than others. Famous people sometimes help us to understand how we can all do our bit to help people in need.  |
| 9 th November  | Cruise ships around the world have found themselves docked and empty due to current travel restrictions. One former cruise ship captain, Paul Derham, has been using his ferry to organise tours to sail around some of the docked cruise ships in Dorset. | What can you do on a cruise ship?                |    | Mutual Respect - Cruise ships are not sailing at the moment due to the coronavirus pandemic, however some crew are still onboard to help look after the ships whilst they are empty. These people are working hard to make sure the ships are ready for when they are able to set sail again. |
| 16 th November | Personal trainer, Joe Wicks announced on social media that he will be returning to recording his exercise class - Wake Up With Joe. Joe says he wants to help us to get a bit more exercise in our lives.  | What exercise do you enjoy the most?             |    | Individual Liberty - It is really good for us to always stay active. There are many different kinds of exercises and we can choose to do the ones we enjoy.   |
| 23 rd November | Boys' elite football academies for under-16s have been allowed to continue during England's four-week lockdown but girls' equivalent regional training centres have been stopped.  | What can we do if we think something isn't fair? |   | Mutual Respect - Sometimes we may think someone is being unfair. If this happens, we can talk to the people we trust about it. We should also make sure we are always fair to others.   |
| 30 th November | Plans to dig a road tunnel, near the ancient monument site of Stonehenge in Salisbury, have been approved by the Transport Secretary, Grant Shapps.  | What are tunnels used for?                       |  | Democracy - There are plans to build a new road tunnel near Stonehenge. Some people are happy about this and some are not. If we do not agree with something that is happening in the world, we all have a right to say what we think.  |
| 7 th December  | Two notebooks thought to be worth millions of pounds, belonging to the scientist Charles Darwin, have been reported stolen from Cambridge University Library 20 years after they were last seen.   | Do special things help us to remember?           |  | Mutual Respect and Tolerance - Some things we have can be special because they help us to remember places we visited or a special person. Something that is special to you, may not be special to someone else, but we can all respect how each other feels.                                  |
| 14 th December | This year's John Lewis Christmas advert revolves around a theme inspired by the kindness of the British public during the coronavirus pandemic.  | How can we show we care?                         |  | Mutual Respect and Tolerance - Being kind to someone helps to show that we care. We all like people to be kind to us so we should always try our best to be kind to everyone too.   |
