

Into the Unknown – Knowledge Organiser

What I should already know

- ✓ I can talk about past and present events in my own life and in the lives of family members.
- ✓ I can talk about important people.
- ✓ I know that change happens over time.
- ✓ I can talk about important people from the past.

Key People

Christopher Columbus
1451-1506

Santa Maria

Christopher Columbus' Voyages

Neil Armstrong 1930-2012

Apollo 11

Saturn 5

Ernest Shackleton 1874-1922

Endurance

Voyages

Key Vocabulary

exploration	the act of exploring or finding an unfamiliar area
courageous	not put off by danger, being brave.
fleet	a group of ships which sail together
Apollo 11	the command module that was carried by the rocket Saturn 5, and landed on the moon
colonizer	someone who sends people to a place who then settle there and take over control of the place
slavery	being forced to work for someone against their will without payment
Saturn 5	the rocket which carried the crew and command module Apollo 11 to the moon
voyage	a long journey involving travel by sea or in space

Key Knowledge

What will I know by the end of this study theme?

- Christopher Columbus and Neil Armstrong were significant individuals who contributed to international achievements.
- Christopher Columbus discovered America.
- Neil Armstrong was the first person to walk on the moon.
- Their contributions to exploration affected the lives of people at the time and today.
- Columbus and Armstrong were courageous and skilled explorers.
- The history of exploration is a major human achievement that develops human knowledge and progress.