

Super Starter

We will start our study theme by encountering extinct and endangered animals. We will learn about them as we play 'Top Trumps', comparing features and characteristics.

As Artists we will take inspiration from April Coppini and create our own charcoal wolf sketches.

As Scientists we will be learning about 'Living Things & Habitats', especially in woodland and forests. We will also continue to study Weather patterns.

As Computer Technologists we will be using Purple Mash to learn about 'Spreadsheets'.

For our RSHE:

British Values: The Right to be Safe & Healthy

Articles: 16,17,19,24,27
Heartsmart – Fake is a Mistake

No Outsiders enhanced with P4C

As Readers and Writers we will enjoy the fictional text 'The Last Wolf' by Mini Grey.

This text will encourage us to participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates. Using this knowledge, we will develop our writing, enabling us to write letters in role persuading characters to save the trees.

How can we look after our environment?

Hedgehogs' Class

Summer 1 2025

As Geographers we will explore maps, creating a map of the forest in the story, identifying key locations.

We will also be looking at different forests and their importance to the environment. As Courageous Advocates, we will be raising awareness about environmental conservation.

As Theologians we will be engaging in the units, Baptism, whilst also learning how people from different faiths welcome babies (Hinduism, Sikhism, Islam).

As Musicians we will be listening to more complex pieces of music that tell a story, such as 'Peter and the Wolf'. We will be developing a musical performance that narrates the story of 'The Last Wolf'.

As Design Technologists we will design and make sliders with a forest theme.

As Mathematicians we will be learning about:

- Multiplication & Division
- Measurement

Fantastic finish

We will complete our study theme by having a Forest Festival.
